

June 14, 2012 The BC organizes today a public debate on the new media regulation

Skopje, June 14, 2012 – Representatives from the media, the NGO sector and from state and public institution are participating today on a public debate dedicated to the future of the media regulation and, organized by the Broadcasting Council (BC).

The sessions are focused on the reform of the provisions on advertising that are passed down by the EU Directive on audio-visual media services, the regulation on the new media services and the regulation on the media concentration in the new media surrounding.

The public debate is held in the congress hall of the Sport Center "Boris Trajkovski".