

June 18, 2012 The chief of the EU delegation and the president of the Broadcasting Council talked about deepening of the collaboration between the two institutions

Skopje, June 18, 2012 – Promotion of the collaboration between the Broadcasting Council (BC) and the EU Delegation (EUD) in the Republic of Macedonia was the subject of the conversation between the president of the Broadcasting Council Zoran Trajchevski and the chief of the EUD, the ambassador Aivo Orav.

Mr. Trajchevski used the opportunity, at the first joint meeting with the EU ambassador in this country, to present the strategic activities on which the BC is currently working on, regarding the regulations on the broadcasting activity market and the euro – integrations.

Otherwise, the BC actively participates in projects, financed by the pre-accessible EU funds intended for construction of the institutional capacities and fulfilling of the European Acquis.
