

Broadcasters should submit annual reports on the fulfillment of their obligations under the radio/TV broadcasting licenses

Skopje, 15.03.2016 – Media Law (Article 15, Paragraph 5) obliges the media to submit to the regulator, by 31 March of the current year at the latest, written reports on the fulfillment of their obligations under the radio or TV broadcasting licenses – the implementation of their programme concepts in particular. Enclosed to their reports should be information about the technical means for broadcasting or retransmission of the programme services in the Republic of Macedonia and abroad.

The reports should be sent using the forms (for TV and radio, respectively) provided by the Agency.

- Report Form on Meeting the Obligations Specified in the Radio Broadcasting License;
- Report Form on Meeting the Obligations Specified in the Television Broadcasting License
