

Public hearing opened on the Draft Rulebook on identifying the locations to which the operators of PECN that retransmit programme services and the providers of on-demand audiovisual media services are required to deliver their signals

Skopje, 28.04.2016 – The Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services has opened a public hearing concerning the text of the Draft Rulebook on identifying the locations to which the operators of public electronic communication networks that retransmit programme services and the providers of on-demand audiovisual media services are required to deliver their signals.

The Agency calls on all interested parties to take part in the public hearing, which ends on 27 May 2016, by submitting their opinions and proposals in writing. The opinions and the proposals can be submitted electronically, to irena.bojadzieva@avmu.mk and argjend.xhelili@avmu.mk, or by mail at the following address: ul. Makedonija, br. 38, 1000 Skopje.