

2017 Media Day

Skopje, 6 December 2017 – the School of Journalism and Public Relations is organizing today its third Media Day. On this occasion, a several print, electronic and online media outlets from Skopje, Bitola and Kumanovo will be hosting groups of students from a number of high-schools from all over Macedonia. The goal of this event is to acquaint the audience, youth in particular, with the role media play in society, with how the editorial boards function and with the professional standards of journalism.

The host media that have jointed this initiative – Nova Makedonija daily, the MRT1 Public Broadcaster, TV 21 from Skopje, Tera TV from Bitola, TV Plus from Kumanovo, the Makfaks news agency, and MOF Radio – will be reporting on the high-shool students' visits.