

Memorandum of Cooperation Signed with Slovenia's Agency for Communication Networks and Services

13 December 2017 – As part of their bilateral meeting held in Ljubljana today, the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services and the Agency for Communication Networks and Services of the Republic of Slovenia signed a Memorandum of Cooperation. The purpose of this Memorandum is to enhance cooperation between the two regulatory authorities and undertake activities of joint interest together.

The activities set forth in this document for cooperation include exchange of information about the development of policies and strategies in the area of electronic media services regulation, and about the implementation of the parties' national legal regulations., as well as their amendment and modification; taking, where appropriate, joint actions and positions before the European and other international organizations related to the sphere of electronic media services, etc.

Apart from signing the Memorandum, at the bilateral meeting, the two regulators shared experiences on a number of issues, focusing on both the previous and the future activities in the sphere of media literacy, the process of issuing licenses to broadcasters and the monitoring of media content.