

BROADCASTERS DID NOT VIOLATE THE BLACKOUT

Skopje, 1 October 2018 – Following the inspection of the way in which the radio and television stations reported during the pre-referendum silence, the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services informed that none of the broadcasters subject to monitoring had violated the blackout .

The broadcasters met their professional obligation to keep the citizens informed in a specific context characteristic of a pre-referendum silence, while not violating the rules.

In the following days, the Agency will publish the reports on the detected violations on other grounds, as well as the report on the manner the Referendum was covered during the last 9 days of the campaign.
