

Agency to Hold its 4th Public Meeting on 26 December 2018 (to be live-streamed on the Agency's YouTube channel)

Skopje, 25 December 2018 – On 26 December 2018 (Wednesday), starting at 12:00 hrs, the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services will hold its 4th Public Meeting in 2018 .

Apart from the activities the Agency has carried out in the last quarter of this year, also discussed at the meeting will be the novelties introduced in the Directive on Audiovisual Media Services, focusing on the rules that apply to the television broadcasters.

The Agency representatives will present the results of the research into gender representation in the television programmes in 2018, as well as the Infographics which the Agency has published in the Macedonian, Albanian and English languages about the results of the audience opinion surveys regarding the national television channels' programmes for children and the representation of sexual orientation in the media.

The public meeting will take place in the Agency's premises, in the 2nd floor conference room.