

Ad Hoc Supervision over Alfa 1 TV – Principles of Performing the Business Activity

Skopje, 12 March 2019 – Acting ex officio, the Agency conducted an ad hoc programme supervision over the show titled “Vo centar” (In the Centre), aired by Alfa TV on 24 February 2019.

The supervision showed that, in certain parts of the show, the journalist Vasko Eftov failed to observe the principles of performing the business activity, among other things, by preventing his interlocutor, the president of the “Dignity” political party Stojanche Angelov, from expressing himself in full, and by discrediting him, i.e. addressing him in a manner inappropriate for communication on the media.
