

Public Competition Announced for Granting a Radio Broadcasting License to a Local Programme Service – Municipality of Debar

Skopje, 8 January 2020 – The Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services announces a public competition for granting a radio programme broadcasting license to a music and talk radio of a general format, in the Macedonian and Albanian languages, locally on the territory of Debar municipality. The service will be broadcasted using a radio-frequency allocated by the Electronic Communication Agency (AEC), i.e. at 104.7 MHz .

- The documents relating to the announced public competition for granting a license to a local radio programming service, at the local level on the territory of Debar municipality, along with the Application Form for participating in the public competition for granting a license to a local radio programme broadcasting service on the territory of the municipality of Debar, can be collected from the Archiving Office of the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services, at Panko Brashnarov Palace, ul. Makedonija br. 38, Skopje, every working day from 8:00 hrs to 16:00 hrs;
- The fee for the above documentation is MKD 60,000.00 (sixty thousand), and should be paid to the following bank account: 300000000618023, to the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services. Bank Depositor: Komercijalna Banka AD Skopje;
- The applications of the candidates who will not pay the fee for the documentation, or those submitted after the deadline defined in the Decision to Announce a Public

Competition for Granting a Broadcasting License to a Local Radio Programming Service, as well as those that will be found to be incomplete, unduly filled or lacking one of the two required copies (an original and a copy), will not be taken into consideration.

Application to participate in a public competition for granting a broadcasting license to a radio programming service at the local level, in the area of Debar municipality