

Ad Hoc Supervision Over 24 VESTI TV concerning the Principles of Performing One's Professional Activities

Skopje, 16.05.2017 – Acting upon a complaint it had received, the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services conducted an ad hoc programme supervision over the work of TRD 24 VESTI DOOEL Shtip, with the aim of verifying if this media outlet had violated Article 61 of the Law on Audio and Audiovisual Media Services (LAAMS), which requires impartial presentation of the developments and abidance by the professional standards, in its show titled “24 Analysis – A Way Out of the Crisis or Political Marketing”, which was aired on 04.04.2017.

The supervision found that the programming principles for performing the broadcaster's activity, stipulated in Article 61 of the LAAMS, had not been violated.

The report may be downloaded at this link