

British Ambassador Charles Edmund Garrett pays visit to the Agency

Skopje, 23 September 2016 – Today, at the premises of the Agency for Audio and Audiovisual Media Services, representatives of the Agency had a meeting with H.E. Mr. Charles Edmund Garrett, Ambassador of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the Republic of Macedonia.

The visit was focused on the monitoring of media coverage of elections by the radio and television services during electoral processes and the role of the regulatory authority during the same.

Both sides agreed that this cooperation should be promoted and expanded in the future.
